

ATM Contingency Planning

Course Objectives (AIMs)

- Acquainting participants with the up to date Air Navigation Services Contingency Planning concepts.
- Enhancing knowledge and capabilities in the Contingency Plan development, testing, verification, implementation and its re-viewing
- Resource identification, exploiting and allocation to increase safety, Security, efficiency reduce costs taking into consideration environment impact where ever possible in all Modes of operations, loss of services and/or degraded mode of services, taking into consideration all probable and realistic events.
- Have a good understanding of the ATM elements and their functions and activities and Their role in their field of application.
- Be having a good understanding of contingencies Policies understanding and Their development
- Understanding the ATM modes of operation.
- Revision and updating of existing contingencies or its development.
- Be capable of developing Contingency Plans based on policy requirements.
- Functions tasks harmonization among the ATM concerned agencies and roles identifying
- Exercising and implementation of the plan.

Who Should Attend (Targeted Population)

- The course is designed for directors, managers, middle managers, air traffic controllers, engineering and technicians from ATM, airport or aviation related to Air navigation services organization or agencies.)

Course Main Topics (Contents)

- The course has been designed for experienced personnel in the field of ATM and ANS, The program is divided into different modules designed to assist participants in acquiring the knowledge and skills pertaining to the ATM elements and services alternate system.

Course Duration

- 1 Week
-

Minimum Number of Trainees

- 6 – 12 trainees